

Physiotherapist – (Albury Wodonga)

Company Overview

From its humble beginnings, Flex Out Physiotherapy has evolved from a one-person vision, to a successful multi-clinic organisation. With seven clinics across Victoria, NSW and the ACT, our secret to success is steered by our passionate staff and their commitment to our core values. At Flex Out Physiotherapy we consistently provide a client-centred approach, with longer consultation times, one-on-one interactions and most importantly, a focus on 'hands-on' manual therapy techniques. We believe the consistency of this approach has been fundamentally important in the 'word of mouth' advertising that has been the main driver of our business over the past 20+ years.

Company History

Flex Out Physiotherapy was established in 1995 by Danealle Lilley. Kevin Laws joined the team in 2001 and purchased the business in 2002. Since this time, Flex Out has fast become to a successful multi-clinic organisation. In 2012 the structure of the business operations changed with Liam James, Rebecca Piazza and Kylie McInnes joining Kevin to form the board of directors that own and operate Flex Out Physiotherapy. At present, Flex Out Physiotherapy has seven clinics across south-east Australia. This includes three in NSW - Albury, Lavington, Thurgoona, two in Victoria - Wodonga, Myrtleford and two in the ACT Woden and Queanbeyan.
